Phillip W. Smith, II, Attorney
psmith@dickinson-wright.com
https://www.linkedin.com/in/phillipsmithii/

Phil Smith is an attorney practicing out of Dickinson Wright's Grand Rapids office. His practice focuses on corporate, finance, and real estate law. Phil assists a broad range of business clients in a variety of matters, including business formation, mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, loan documentation, and real estate transactions.

Prior to beginning his legal career, he served for six years in the United States Army with one deployment, achieving the rank of Captain.

Phil is admitted to the Bar in Indiana and Michigan. Phil earned his Juris Doctorate from Indiana University's Maurer School of Law and his Bachelor of Science degree in American and Legal Studies and Environmental Engineering from the United States Military Academy (West Point).