

Joseph Presutti | K2 Growth Partners

Joseph Presutti is a Founding Partner of K2 Growth Partners. He is responsible for all activities of the firm, including deal origination, portfolio company management, and the firm's overall management. Prior to founding K2GP, Joseph was an analyst, associate, and vice president at Blackford Capital (2010-2019). During his time at Blackford, Joe led the firm's Deal Execution Team, where he was responsible for all deal sourcing and business development. Additionally, Joe was responsible for portfolio company governance and oversight of several companies within the firm's portfolio, which involved active management of the business at the executive board level. Over the course of his tenure at Blackford, Joe completed over twenty-five transactions with a total value of over $500 million. Joe also built much of the firm's internal infrastructure, processes, and systems, including establishing and serving on the firm's Investment Committee.

Joe holds a BA in Finance and Economics from the Seidman School of Business at Grand Valley State University. In 2016, Joe was awarded the M&A Advisor Emerging Leaders Dealmaker (40 Under 40) Award.
