Nathan joined Adamy Valuation in 2020. As a Senior Analyst, his primary responsibilities include providing clients with valuation and financial advisory services in connection with employee stock ownership plans, mergers and acquisitions, management succession planning, corporate strategic planning, and other financial transactions.

Prior to joining Adamy, Nathan served as Assurance Staff for a global accounting firm, where he worked with a broad range of industries and client types. Nathan was tasked with executing all phases of the audit process, including planning, risk assessment, financial analysis and substantive testing, and preparing financial statements. Additionally, Nathan performed multiple business combination audits and internal control assessments.

Nathan is a graduate of Calvin University, where he received both a bachelor's and a master's degree in accounting. He served as Chief Financial Officer for Knight Investment Management, a student-managed investment fund. Nathan was also captain of the men's varsity swim team.

Outside of the office, Nathan enjoys spending time with his family and friends. He loves getting outdoors for sports, camping, and grill-outs. As a born and raised Hoosier, Nathan is a die-hard Colts fan. Further, he considers himself an overly competitive board game enthusiast. During his off time, Nathan loves to travel with his wife, Jessica. After work you can find Nathan at the gym, cooking, and bingeing his latest Netflix show.
